

A Brief profile

Dr. Konda Nageswara Rao is working as the Director for the Civil service Academy, Osmania University, Hyderabad and a senior faculty member in the Dept of English, Arts College, and Osmania University. He has 22 years of teaching, research and administrative experience. He has published about 25 research articles in the prestigious national and international journals. He organized four international conferences and six National conferences and 65 literary talks and literary events. Five PhDs were awarded under his supervision and another five have submitted their thesis.

He has been conducting free English grammar and communicative skills classes for the rural, poor and marginalized students for the last 20 years at the Arts College. He has been a resource person for many teacher training institutions and HRDC of Osmania university and he has been a resource person and guide on TV Channels like ETV, V6, T SAT , TEN news and other YouTube channels etc. He is very interested in training the rural and marginalized students for the Civils, groups , Groups. DL ,JL ,SI and other competitive examinations. Around five Thousand students who were motivated and guided by him are working in various public sectors of Telangana state. He has been a good orator on various social. Educational, cultural and political aspects of the Telangna and India.

He also worked as the director for OUCIP (former ASRC), Dr.BR Ambedkar Research center, the center for Telangana studies and also worked as the coordinator for ELTC, Nizam college. He was the literary convener for 35th National Book Fair Dec 2022 held at NTR stadium, Hyderabad. He has been a member in various academic and research committees of Osmania University, Mahatma Gandhi and Sathavahana universities. He wrote two books on English grammar and communicative skills and edited four books and published with ISBN by the prestigious publishing houses. He has been a research supervisor for many universities such as Osmania University, JNTU and Rayalaseema university. He was the co-ordinator for 62nd All India English Teachers' conference ( AIETC) in 2018. He visited many state and central universities in India and Nepal. He worked as the National joint secretary for Association of English Studies of India(AESI) which is the prominent academic body for English Studies. He has been a editorial board member in many literary journals. At present he is engaged in the research of American literature, Indian literature, ELT, Changing dynamics of classroom and post colonial literature. Currently he is taking free classes for the students for all India service examinations in Osmania University.