About Us

The Young Orators Club of Secunderabad (YOCS) is a community-led oratory club based in Hyderabad. Founded in 1969, it is home to thinkers and orators from different walks of life. Our members embody our motto, "Cogitas Veritas", which reminds us to think truthfully. Our weekly sessions consists of lively debates, discussions and elocutions where we explore topics related to politics, philosophy, science and technology etc. If you are someone who enjoys critical thinking and public speaking, you will find a community of us at YOCS where we rant, rage and revel in all kinds of discourses.

In collaboration with University College of Arts and Social Sciences, we bring to you Wits & Words - an inter-college literary fest. Through our five events, we intend to challenge your wits through words. Join us as we take you through an enriching journey of rediscovering joy in literary activities.

General Guidelines

- 1. Students participating in the events have to register online through shared links.
- 2. All participants must wear their college ID cards and follow their college dress code.
