CREDITS:

Dr. Syed Azeemuddin is working as an Assistant Professor at Department of Islamic Studies, University College of Arts and Social Sciences, Osmania University since 06-09-2013.

He has completed his Ph.D. Thesis titled ‘Economics in Islamic Perspective’ under the able guidance of Prof. Shahid Ali Abbasi, Dept. of Islamic Studies, Osmania University, Hyderabad, in the year 2009.

It is truly commendable that this thesis has been recognized and adopted as a subject in the department since 2015. This accomplishment demonstrates not only his scholarly excellence but also his significant contribution to the field of Islamic Economics. By integrating Islamic principles with economic thought, he has paved the way for a deeper understanding of how economic systems can align with ethical and spiritual values. This is an invaluable resource for students, as it broadens their perspectives and provides a more holistic approach to economics. His work will continue to inspire future generations of scholars and students alike.

At present, he is working on a series of books with the title ‘The True Perception’

1. The True Perception – Concept of God and Religion.
2. The True Perception – Concept Fate (Free-will and Predestination).
3. The True Perception – Concept of Hijab (Veil) in Islam.
4. The True Perception – Concept of Riba. Etc.
