

Brief CV

Professor Vallabu Srilatha, is presently Chairperson, Board of Studies, in the Department of Political Science, University College of Arts and Social Sciences ,Osmania University. She has obtained her MA in Political Science from Hyderabad Central University and PhD from the Department of Political Science, OU. She worked for a decade in the Centre for Indian Ocean Studies, OU as Assistant Professor. She has been awarded OU Vice Chancellor Award for Research in Social Science for the year 2022. She was formerly, Head, Dept of Political Science and Director, Women's Study Centre at University College for Women[presentlyTelangana Mahila Vishwavidyalayam] .

She has been the coordinator for BA Honours in the Department of Political Science initiated for the first time in OU College for Women, Koti. She is also Joint Director, in the Office of International Affairs, OU She has participated and presented papers in both national and international conferences in India and abroad.She participated and presented papers at Conferences at prestigious institutes like Center for Maritime and Oceanic Laws at University of Nantes, France, ISEAS, Singapore, Hong Kong and United Nations Head Quarters, New York and Kaulalampur, Malaysia. She has conducted seminars, webinars both national and international in the fields of International Relations and Women's Studies. Her areas of research interests include, Maritime Studies, Indian Ocean Region South & South East Asia & Indo-US relations and Women Studies