

BRIEF INTRO
Dr.S.Raghu,
Dept. of Telugu,
Osmania University

Dr.S.Raghu, a distinguished academician in Telugu literature, brings over three decades of expertise in teaching, research, and writing. A recipient of MA, MPhil, and PhD from Osmania University, he began university service in 2013. His academic journey is marked by significant contributions to the field of Telugu literature and culture.

Dr.Raghu has been actively involved in curriculum design, serving on editorial boards for various textbooks, including works for the School Education, Intermediate Education, Telangana Open School, Undergraduate Programmes and Dr. BR Ambedkar Open University.

As an accomplished researcher, he has guided eight PhD scholars to successful completion, with several others currently pursuing research under his mentorship. His research has been enriched through participation and coordination in numerous refresher courses and research methodology programs.

A prolific writer, Dr.Raghu has authored and edited several books and published extensively in reputed journals like Palapitta and Musi. His works have earned accolades, including the Kamishetty Jateeya Sahitya Puraskaram. As a member of the Telugu Advisory Board of Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi, and a frequent resource person, he has contributed significantly to promoting Telugu literature on national platforms. His commitment to literature, pedagogy, and cultural studies continues to inspire the academic community.