

Brief Profile

DR.C.S.SWATHI

Head, Dept. of Linguistics,
Chairperson, Women Empowerment Cell,
Coordinator, IQAC
University College of Arts and Social Sciences, Osmania University and Executive Council (EC) Member, Linguistic Society of India.
General Secretary, Dravidian Linguistics Association, Thiruvanthapuram

Having 3 decades of experience in Mentoring, teaching, supervising and guiding students from diplomas to PhD level, Dr. Swathi was instrumental in giving quality higher education. Have a PhD in Linguistics and dual degree in Speech and Hearing Sciences and Linguistics, her areas of specializations are in Speech and Language Processing by the brain in normal and in the Language disorders across lifespan. She has also developed tests and materials based on the Telugu language for clinical and research use.

She was awarded the Vice Chancellor's Research Excellence Award at Osmania University in 2022. In the same year she was selected as a Research Associate at the premier Indian institute for advanced studies, Rastrapati Niwas, Shimla and was the only candidate from Telangana. Dr. Swathi has also successfully completed 6 research projects and co-authored 2 books to her credit and is also supervising PhD candidates. She has also rendered talks at various Forums, Conferences and Training Programs.

Being the Chairperson for Women Empowerment Cell, she was instrumental in creating awareness on women related issues by arranging talks on various topics and facilities for women and girl students at the college. As Coordinator of IQAC, she actively coordinated with different departments for the required data. She has also organized various outreach programmes such as awareness on the Hearing Loss, webinar on Learning Disability, School Screening Programme, skill development programme, and so on, just to name a few.

She serves as the Executive Council member of the Prestigious Linguistic Society of India, a National Level Body and also as General Secretary of Dravidian Linguistics Association, Thiruvanthapuram.